eggressive cleverness, outpointing the invincible Saginaw Kid so far in twenty rounds that the referee was forced to give a decision that carried the championship with 14. Still there was more than cleverness in Frank Erne. He was a gonuine fighter, with everything a champion should have. I was lucky enough to see the fight that proved Erne a coming champion -a fighter who could fight like a champion when the odds were ten to one against him, and win out. It was in old Woodward Pavilion

Francisco, on the night of March 3, 1899. Erne had come to San so fresh from a twenty-round draw with Champion Levigne, and led by much written and printed matter describing his marvellous es. Bosing shows will be held by the following clobs to-night: At Brown Gymnesses and A. A-Young Marry O'Brien we have a first brought out by Tommy Burns, the ex-heavy weight champion, and who has fought with good success in Australia, but since his return from that country was knocked out by Sam Laneford in California in Sive rounds, will make his first appearance in a bout in the East at the Fairmont A. C. in the Bronx to-night. He will meet Jim Coffey, the "Dublin Glant," in the main event of ten rounds. This dight ensance a great deal to Lester, for if he can best Coffey he will return my bouts with the other "white hopes," but if he is defeated he might just as well pack up and go back to his home.

Now that Jim Coffers he will return my bouts with the other "white hopes," but if he is defeated he might just as well pack up and go back to his home.

Tommy Murphy is unlucky. Tommy was matched twice to battice with injuries both times, which called for a postponement of the contest. Bittohie's physician has advised him not to attempt to fight agrain for several weeks, and Willie has called off the fight for good.

Now, in less than a month, Mr. Gilmore decides alt of a sudden, just like that, to have Ty Cobb. With a loud cry he sends for telegraph blanks, carbon paper, a messenger boy and reporters. "In the presence of all?" comes over the wire, 'he wrote the message offering Ty Cobb 50,000 for five years work, 155,000 to be paid in cash and the other placed in escrow—sercew meaning where he can get at it if he delivers the goods. Mr. Gilmore served the served work, 155,000 for Minor le learning rapidly.

Behold! the air of secrecy gone and the news out before Tyrus Cobb has any inkling of what is coming to Georgia. So sudden was this thought that the telegram was sent to the wrone, city in Georgia and the people of Roylston, Ty's home town, have yet to bear of it, especially Ty. But Gilmore gets the "ad." just the same.

Mr. Gilmore says he did this under the impression that Cobb had not yet signed a contract with Detroit. But the Federal Learne we face the days when the more and stuck until every cent of he got to give the new league a start?

HE'LL DO ABOUT THAT $75,000 "FED." OFFER.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 17.-Ty Cobb was told at Royston to-day that the Federal League Club in Chicago had offered him $75,000 for five years, with the first year's salary to be paid in advance. Cobb said he did not care to make a statement until he returned to Augusta, Tuesday or Wednesday. "I'll tell you all about it then," said he; but did not intimate what he would do.

of our players. We didn't figure they had a chance. But we woke up one morning and found that most of our stars had jumped. The same thing is likely to happen with this Federal League. The mere fact that Ned Hanjes is in with it makes me believe there is much behind it."

The first thing you know this mysterious Mr. Gilmore is going to make Charley Ebbets and Charle Murphy, our erstwhile publicity champions, take in their signs.

Note the change in methods: When the big leaguers were signing ago when the big leaguers were signing the scribes a lot of trouble.

Mr. Gilmore is going to make the space average to what it was two weeks and sometimes it only last. Anyway, it may not be the scribes a lot of trouble.

Mr. Gilmore, by the way, is treading on dangerous ground. What do you suppose Joe Tinker, Otto Knabe, Mordetal Brown and others are going to say planked his John Hancock on the paper the news was dealt out gingerly. And many of the sporting writers refused to believe it then!

Now Hornung, two old timers, say they are prepared for most anything in ease-boat.
